Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45(c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)
(made applicable in bankruptcy cases by Rule 9016, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure)

(c) Place of compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

(A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or

(B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person

(i) is a party or a party's officer; or

(ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

(A) production of documents, or electronically stored information, or things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and

(B) inspection of premises, at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

(i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;

(ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt. The court for the district where compliance is required — and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court — may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

EXHIBIT B – BANKS AND BANK CONSULTANTS

DEFINITIONS

1. You/Your. The terms “You” and/or “Your” means the person or entity to whom this discovery is directed, as well as Your officers, directors, members, employees, attorneys, agents, representatives, and/or anyone else acting on Your behalf, as well as your predecessors, successors, assigns, and affiliates as that term is defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(2).
2. Debtors. The term “Debtors” shall mean McClain Feed Yard, Inc., McClain Farms, Inc., and 7M Cattle Feeders, Inc., as well as all officers, directors, members, employees, attorneys, agents, and representatives of the foregoing.

White, Jed Goad, JLE Trucking, Inc., any other entities affiliated with the foregoing, as well as all officers, directors, members, employees, attorneys, agents, and representatives of the foregoing, as well as any other known affiliates of any of the Debtors as that term is defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(2).
4. Debtor/Affiliate Accounts. The term “Debtor/Affiliate Accounts” shall mean any savings, checking, demand deposit, or other financial account that was owned by or under the control of any of the Debtors or the Debtor Affiliates.
5. Debtor/Affiliate Loan. The term “Debtor/Affiliate Loan” shall mean any indebtedness of any of the Debtors or any of the Debtor Affiliates.
6. Transfer. The term “transfer” means every mode, direct or indirect, absolute or conditional, voluntary or involuntary, of disposing of or parting with property or an interest in property, and includes payment of money, release, lease, and creation of a lien or other encumbrance.
7. Property. The term “property” means anything that may be the subject of ownership.
8. Documents or Electronically Stored Information. The term “documents or electronically stored information” shall be synonymous in meaning and equal in scope to the usage of those terms in Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and shall include, without limitation, any written, printed, electronic, typed, recorded, filmed, punched, transcribed, taped, or other graphic matter of any kind or nature however stored, produced, or reproduced, whether sent or received or neither, including the original, drafts, copies, and non-identical copies bearing notations or marks not found on the original, and includes, but is not limited to, all records, memoranda, reports, financial statements, handwritten and other notes, transcripts, paper, indices, electronic mail messages, electronic text messages, voicemail, word processing documents, spreadsheets, databases, calendars, telephone logs, contact manager information, internet usage files (including activity logs, records of internet and web browser generated files, history files, caches, and cookies), network access information, blogs, tweets, instant messages, letters, envelopes, telegrams, cables, telex messages, telephone messages, summaries or records of telephone conversations, summaries or records of personal conversations or interviews, summaries or records of meetings or conferences, minutes or transcripts or notations of meetings or telephone conversations or other communications of any type, tabulations, studies, analyses, evaluations, projections, work papers, statements, summaries, opinions, journals, desk calendars, appointment books, diaries, billing records, invoices, or photographs, or other data compilations in any medium from which information can be obtained, including, but not limited to microfilms, magnetic tapes, electronic storage, computers, laptops, hard drives, thumb drives, personal digital assistants, smart phones, and archives, and includes any other documents discoverable under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26, which are in Your custody, possession, and/or control or to which You otherwise have access. The term “document” also includes file and folder tabs associated with each of the aforementioned originals, copies, drafts, or versions. The term “document” also includes “communications” as defined herein.

9. Communications. The term “communications” shall be construed as broadly as possible, and shall include, but not be limited, to all e-mails, text messages, correspondence, memoranda, or other written documentation in any form.

10. Concerning. The term “concerning” means referring to, referencing, reflecting, in connection with, describing, evidencing, indicating, supporting or constituting, digesting, embodying, establishing, tending to establish, tending not to establish, comprising, commenting on, responding to, disagreeing with, showing, describing, analyzing, representing, constituting or including, in whole or in part.

11. All/Each. The terms “all” and “each” shall be construed as all and each.

12. And/Or. The connectives “and” and “or” shall be construed either disjunctively or conjunctively as necessary to bring within the scope of the discovery request all responses that might otherwise be construed to be outside of its scope.

13. Number. The use of the singular form of any word includes the plural and vice versa.

14. Tense. The use of the present tense includes the present and past tense, and the use of the past tense includes the past and present tense.

INSTRUCTIONS

A. Identify all documents that are available in both physical and electronic format, and initially provide only the electronic version. Identify electronic data that is available in more than one format, and provide all formats.

B. These Requests shall extend to all documents in the possession, custody, and/or control of You, as well as all documents in the possession, custody, or control of persons or entities under Your control or which You could reasonably gain access, such as Your attorney(s), accountant(s), employee(s), agent(s), or other representative(s), regardless of who obtained the documents on its behalf, and regardless of the source from which the documents were obtained

C. In the event that more than one copy of a documents exists, You should produce the original and each non-identical copy of each document or other tangible thing requested herein that is in Your possession, custody or control, or the control of Your agents, attorneys, accountants, or employees, or to which You could reasonably gain access.

D. You should comply with the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure regarding claims of privilege or protection of trial preparation materials.

E. These Requests shall be deemed continuing in nature to the fullest extent permitted by law. If further responsive information comes into the possession or attention of You or Your attorneys at any time during the course of this proceeding, such information must be provided as required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

F. If any portion of any document is responsive to any request, then the entire document must be produced.

G. In the event that no document exists which is responsive to a particular request, a written response indicating the same must be provided

H. If any document is withheld on the basis of privilege, or any request is objected to on the basis of privilege, You must nevertheless produce other responsive documents pursuant to such request which are not subject to any privilege, and You must produce a privilege log concerning documents withheld on the basis for privilege.

I. You may withhold documents prohibited from discovery under the Bank Secrecy Act, 31 U.S.C. § 5318(g). This Request does not seek production of documents protected by 31 U.S.C.S. § 5318(g)(2)(A)(i) and implementing regulations including 12 C.F.R. § 353.3 and 31 C.F.R. § 1020.320(e)(1), concerning suspicious activity reports (a "SAR"). Instead, this request seeks documents and reports that were generated by You that concern Your investigations of suspicious activity, such as kiting, produced by You as a part of Your measures to protect Your interest. See In re Whitley, 2011 Bankr. LEXIS 4793 at *10-11 (Bankr. M.D.N.C. 2011).
